ORDER APPOINTING MEMBERS TO THE INDIANA SUPREME COURT COMMISSION ON RACE AND GENDER FAIRNESS

Pursuant to Indiana Administrative Rule 4(c), the Indiana Supreme Court created a Commission on Race and Gender Fairness to study the status of race and gender fairness in Indiana's justice system, and to investigate ways to improve race and gender fairness not only in the courts and legal system, but also among legal service providers, state and local government, and public organizations. Additionally, the Commission on Race and Gender Fairness was charged with recommending to the Supreme Court the implementation of policies and procedures to meet its stated objectives.

In 1999, this Court first appointed twenty-five (25) members to the Commission on Race and Gender Fairness. Consistent with the mandates of Indiana Administrative Rule 4(c)(1), the Indiana Supreme Court appointed to the Commission individuals from the Indiana judiciary, the practicing bar, academia, state and local government, law enforcement and corrections, and public organizations, each for a term of three (3) years. Pursuant to Indiana Administrative Rule 4(c), the Honorable Myra Selby was appointed as Chair and the Honorable Ezra Friedlander of the Indiana Court of Appeals was appointed Vice Chair. This Court now finds that a number of the original Commission members were re-appointed, but a number also were not, causing the existence of some vacancies.

Accordingly, this court now appoints the following individuals to the Indiana Supreme Court Race and Gender Fairness Commission for the terms specified herein:
